Recently, she was a keynote speaker at ResearchEd to speak on why evidence-based teaching matters. What other stories are you working on currently.

The Devils Cup: Coffee, the Driving Force in History

According to Lakoffthen: The most natural way to justify a war on moral grounds is to fit this fairy tale structure to a given situation ... The day after a national poll that asked Americans what they would be willing to go to war for, the administration settled on the rescue scenario, which was readily embraced by the public, the media, and Congress as providing moral justification for going to war [in Iraq]. Even when kept in good conditions, gold fish will only grow to a proportional size of their tank.
