What's up ahead are, mostly, just more complex versions of the same problems that they've known previously, and if they can face those days in the future with the same determination and willingness to adapt that they have carried with them to this point, then they at Two If by Sea have the tools to create success in any situation they encounter, however life may twist and turn and surprise them as they, themselves, grow and change. Simply try to put yourself into situations that don't require you to interact with these haters. James and Dominic A.
